

I implore the FCC and its head, Michael Powell, to delay the June 2nd vote to relax the rules regarding media ownership. Media concentration already occurs today at an alarming level, a fact which often goes unnoticed by the American public. The proposed deregulation would only heighten that concentration, leaving the FCC working against its mandate to preserve the diversity in the media and work in the public's interest. Stop the vote on June 2nd!